The man who sees farthest flies highest

We may change with the seasons, but the seasons will not change us.

--Richard Bach

“And though he be a poor man if he never saw an eagle fly” --John Denver

I was a-trembling because I's have to decide forever betwixt two things and I knowed it. --Mark Twain

For a long time Jonathan forgot about the world that he had come from that place where the Flock lived with its eyes tightly shut to the joy of flight, using its wings as a means to the end of finding and fighting for food. But now and then, just for a moment, he remembered. --Richard Bach

We were riding on a railroad singing someone else's song
We are standing by the crossroads take a side and step along
We are sailing away on a river to the sea
Maybe you and me will meet again.
--James Taylor

The wilderness calls - and in the snow are tracks that lead us on
--Gwen Frostic

You,
Who are on the road
Must have a code,
that you can live by, and so,
become yourself,
because the past is just a goodbye.
--Graham Nash

Much in you is still man,
and much in you is not yet man,
But a shapeless pygmy that walks asleep in the mist searching for its own awakening.

--Kahlil Gibran

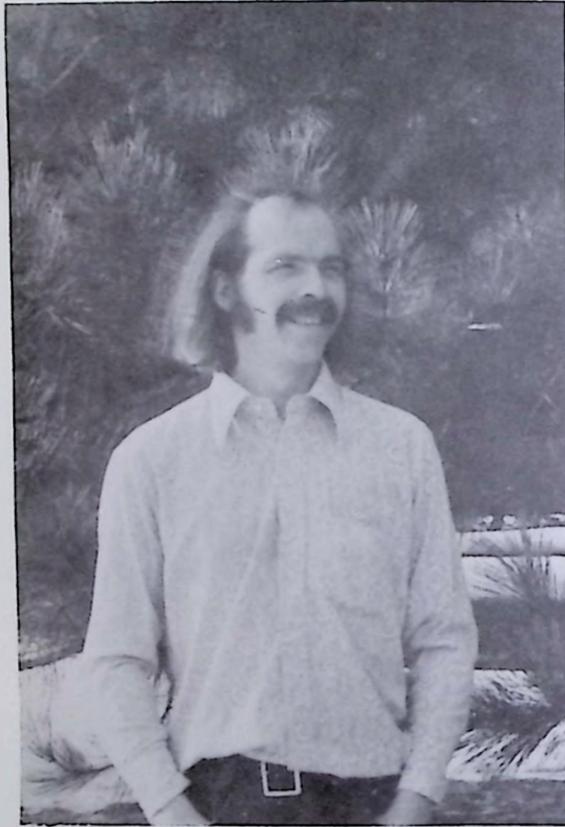

There were those who must have thought us mad spending all that time and money we never had.
Well, some trust in chariots and some in marble banks, some of us just love each other and never ask for thanks.

There were those who must have thought us daft from the way we cried together and the way we laughed.
Well, some trust in chariots and some in big machines, some of you save diamonds, baby, some of us save dreams.
--Rod McKuen

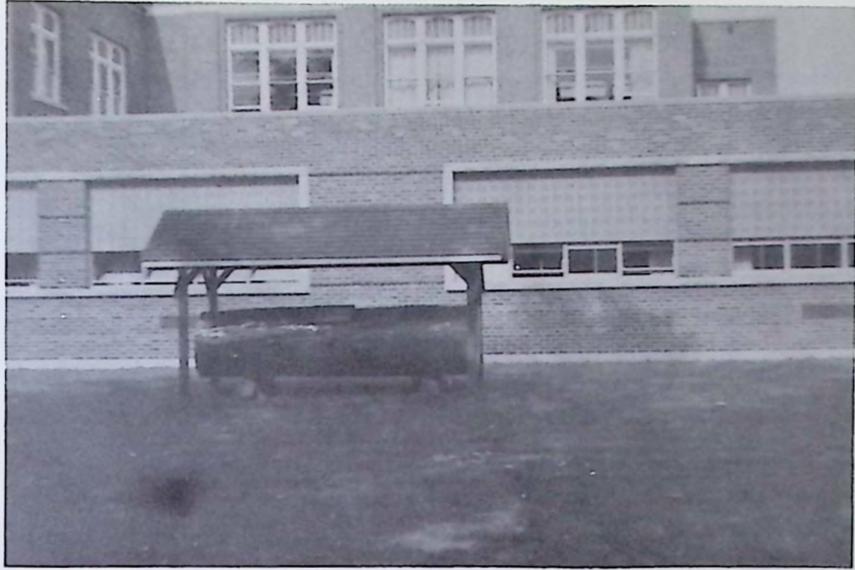

Hi de ho
Hi de hi
Gonna get me a piece of the sky
-Blood, Sweet and Tears

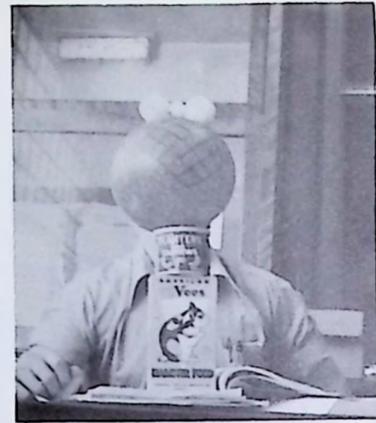

DEDICATION

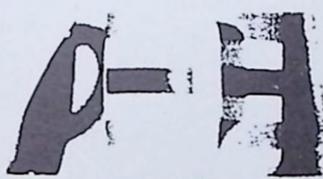

A man who brought many things. He came bringing art. He left in us, his students and friends, a fresh spirit of change, new depths in communication, friendship, a feeling for art, and a part of himself. A teacher though of not just as a teacher, but as a friend. Our yearbook advisor and art teacher, Steve Newcombe.

THE PAST FOUR YEARS: A THOUGHT OR TWO.

How do you remember your High School years? If you're like most, you'll remember the good times, the happy times, the pleasant moments. Should we not, then, in this history bring out the worst of our four years in these hallowed halls to keep them in their proper perspective? Things like getting pushed around by Seniors, some losing seasons, and the garbage in the halls. The answer to all this gibberish is "NO"!

There are enough bad things in life, cheer-up! Remember the moments of happiness at ERHS. Having a girl president; getting a second on our Frosh float; getting a first (by accident) on our Senior float; getting out to build floats; getting out to hassle float builders; going to the A & W for a float.

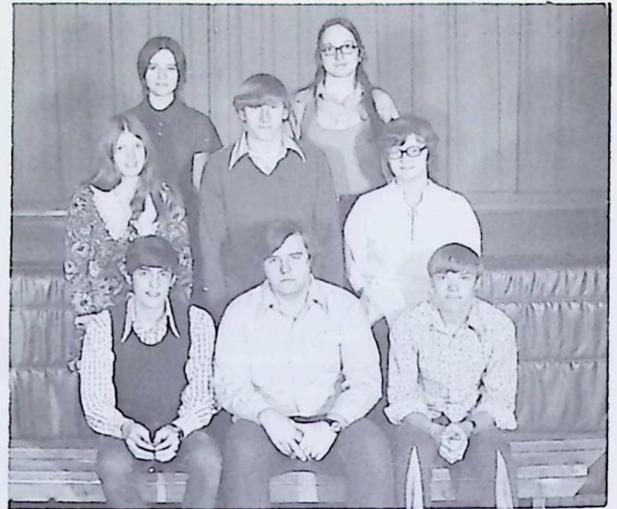

Having a party in physics for Christmas; having a party in history for Easter; having a party in French for Valentine's Day; having a party in creative writing to have a party. Getting out of school for bad weather, caused by a bomb scare. Walking the gauntlet at noon hour.

We didn't have the best teams, we didn't have the worst, the most scholars nor the least. One might say our class was very mediocre--but it isn't. It was our class, and our only class. It's the one we'll remember and that makes it the best!

Intensely they live, each hour of the day
In purposeful waiting, and purposeful flight--
They burst into song, or soar with the winds
A deep sense of urgency prevails.
They have limitations--as all things do--

Yet they sing so fully within themselves that birds ever seem to be wild-- beautiful-- and free--

I stopped to pick up the ball
 But it rolled, then faster and faster
 I found myself following,
 Bent low, straining forward
 And found myself doubled over Rolling head over heels down the hill
 Somersaulting one after another like the ball
 And found myself strangely happy.

And so my fantasy becomes a reality and I must be what I must be and face tomorrow. --Paul Simon

B BASEBALL

By the time the yearbook went to press, the baseball season had not begun. The annual staff wishes the best of luck to this year's team and we hope they enjoy a successful season.

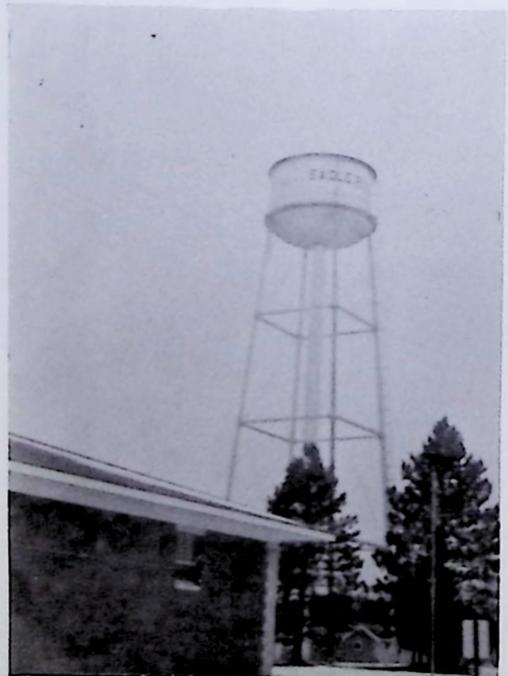

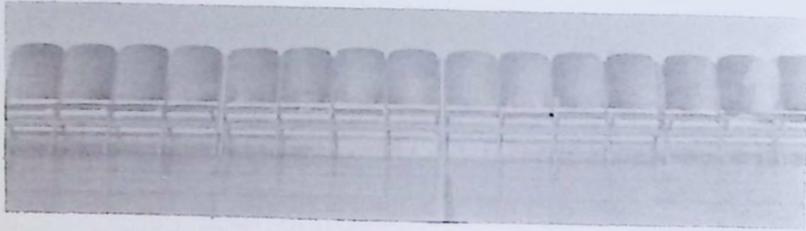

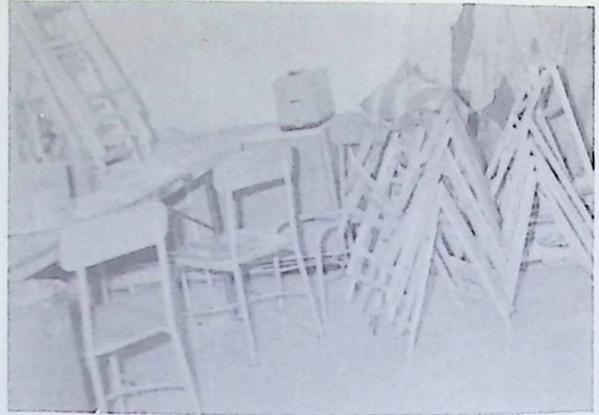

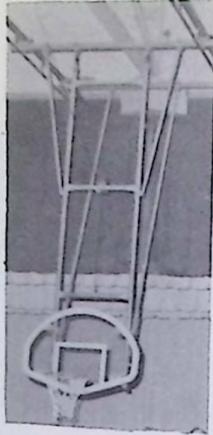

GOLF

Eagle River's 1972 golf team again repeated as Northern Lakes Conference Champions for the eighth time in nine years. Losing only two lettermen to graduation, Eagle River hopes to repeat again as the Champs with the return of lettermen Karl Yeager and Scott McMurry, along with many other talented golfers.

Long ago a young man sits and plays his waiting game
But things are not the same it seems as in such tender dreams

Slowly passing sailing ships and Sunday afternoon
Like people on the moon I see
Are things not meant to be Where do those golden rainbows end?

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders can feel it . . .
The apprehension, the tension, the anger.
It is not only the school's team,
but their special pride.
Girly foolishness, and womanly devotion.
Last minute anxiety sore muscles
and long anticipated excitement.
Sprained thumbs and wet eyes.
Always there,
Always appreciated
Whether they know it or not.
One heck of a bunch of girls!

ONE ACT PLAYS – SENIORS

TOP ROW: MISS DEDO, JEANNE FONDRIE, MARIANNE MILLER.
 BOTTOM ROW: MAUREEN GAFFNEY, KELLY KUEHL, ANN DUNPHY.

SENIOR ONE-ACT PLAY

One impertinent writer, one practically deaf waitress, who will not serve only one egg, and one haughty young lady.

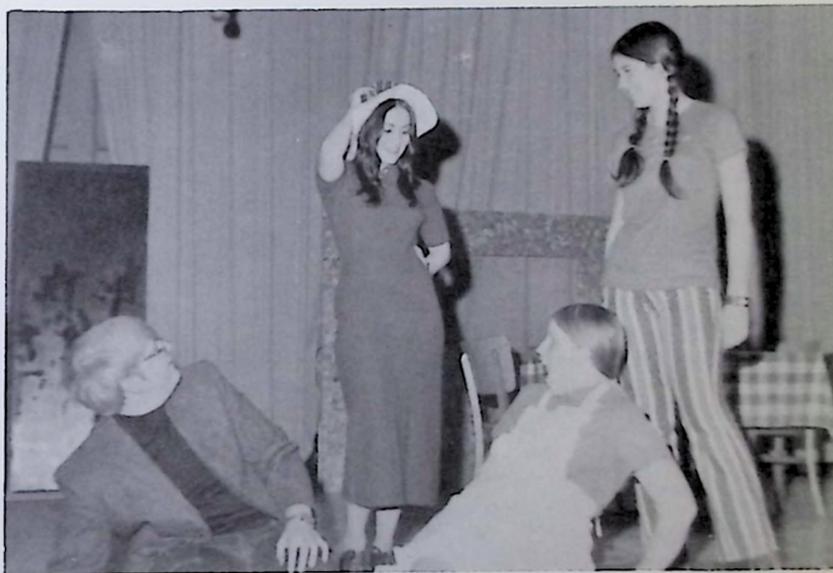

The Name: "One Egg."

The Cast: Ann Dunphy, Kelly Kuehl, Maureen Gaffney.

The Crew: Miss Sue Dedo, Jeanne Fondrie, Lonnie Connolly, and Marianne Miller.

The Applause: Fantastic!

Our appearance,
 our words,
 our actions are never greater than ourselves.
 For the soul
 is our house,
 our eyes its windows;
 and our words
 its messengers.
 --Kahlil Gibran

"How about a switch, Harry? You have the kids and I'll pass out the cigars!" That's the way it was in the Junior one-act play. The anxious mothers, Trudy Dreger, Nellie VandeHey, Sue Akerlund, and Colleen O'Gormann was comforted by the nurse, Pam Coda. The supporting crew was Susan Kruppe, Leslie Krosschell, and Bette Jo Seifert. All were advised by Mrs. Sharon Hannaford.

It was a time, it was, it was,
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories.
They're all that's left you.
--Simon and Garfunkel

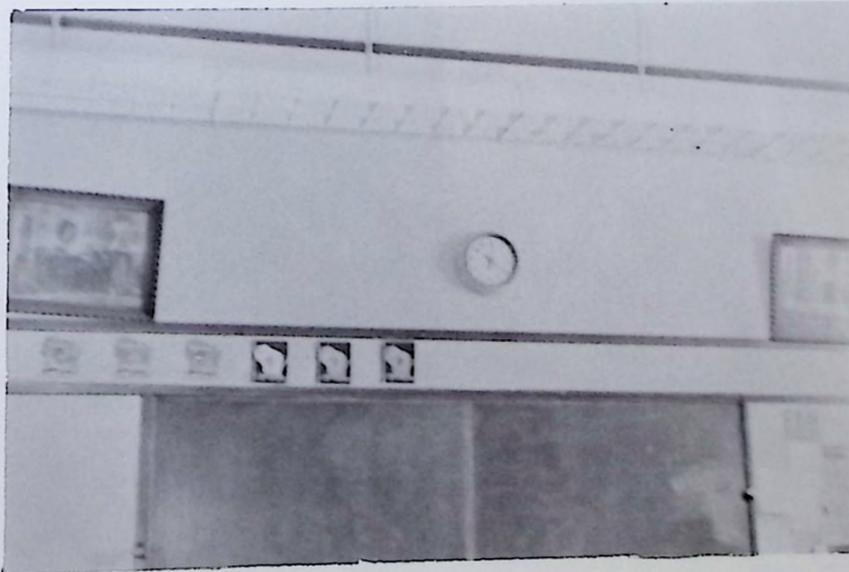

SOPHOMORES

TOP: GARY DOLCE, VICKIE JANKOVICH, LINDA FRICKE, MRS. SEIFERT. BOTTOM: ANN ADOLFO, SHARON CARUSO, DAWN ST. GERMAIN.

The bungling burglar sneaks in; he is accosted by three beautiful daughters and their mother; "No, no you're doing it all wrong," they say. Disenchanted defeated, he leaves. Is it a movie, a dream? No, no, it's the talented sophomore class at ERHS!

I am searching reaching out looking in every eye listening to every word feeling every hand talkin' to everybody . . .

Does anybody really know what time it is?
Does anybody really care?

Six fawning girls all want the job as secretary, but good conquers and the honest one wins. Perhaps a meager start for the young starlets but Liz was young once too, and with guidance like Mrs. Caves', they'll go far.

The morning begins with contention.
It is a day I meant to sanctify.
All by myself, with words of my choosing.
And now you have scribbled over it
The facts of our life.

It sounds like realism.
But look -
It is melodrama.

Inspiration works through all individuals. As one group inhales, another exhales inspiration with the next breath. It motivates, it becomes an obsession and a kind of wonderful hysteria, until mere words are no longer possible, only the knowing smile of pride in one's team.

Those funky French freaks have fanagled another fun-filled year of far-out things to do. Under the capable guidance of a new teacher, Mrs. Caves, they started off the year with a swim party at the Gateway Hotel. They followed this up with their dance in early December, music provided by Omega. Things kept right on rolling until the big end-of-the-year French Banquet where the officers for the next year were chosen.

The newest club in school has turned out to be one of the most active under the leadership of Pres. Rick Lange, Vic-Pres. Karl Yeager, Sec. Pam Torcaso, Treas. Wendy Morgan, and advisor Miss Joni Scheider. The German club started off the year with a Fussball Spiel, a soccer game, followed by bicycle trips, Polka dancing, a Korbball Spie, basketball game, with French club, a Halloween party, plus much more. It was a good year and hopefully next year will be even better.

Mix a group of energetic girls, a dedicated teacher, some imagination and laughter, and you have the Future Homemakers of America. The girls collected for the Retarded Children's Fund last fall, and, in March, they had a party and a sing-along at the Eagle River Nursing Home. The FHA again sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, which was held on December 9, 1972, and highlighted by the crowning of Shelley Caruso as queen and Chuck Pride as king. This club may appear to be quiet on the surface, but it is really bubbling with activity.

ANNUAL STAFF

Putting an annual together is traveling many miles selling ads, spending mornings and noon-hours selling subscriptions, taking pictures, developing pictures, laying out ads, gathering "glory sheets," arranging lay-out, and a million other things which without one of them this 1973 Northern Trail could not have been made. Our sincere thanks go to all the volunteers who helped make this yearbook for you and special thanks go to our Senior lay-out editors, Jeanne Fondrie and Peggy Fricke who have devoted countless hours of their time turning many happy memories into this your 1973 Northern Trail.

. . . for afterwards a man finds pleasure and wandered long.

The winter of 1972-73 will live in infamy in the minds of Midwestern skiers, but it didn't dampen our spirits even if it did leave hills bare and ski bottoms ruined. In spite of the weather, ski club membership was very large and capably led by President Kelly Kuehl, Vice-President Mike Nagel and Secretary-Treasurer Ann Dunphy. Most of the trips this year were to Indianhead, the "posh" and Porcupine Mountains, the "poor man's."

E-Club started out the year by allowing the varsity cheerleaders to join. Although the club has been inactive, they have shown more organization in the past few years and, hopefully they will become an active school club in the future.

Well, the book is finished. It took many people and many, many long hours to get this book ready for you - we hope you enjoy it.

There were a few individuals who deserve more recognition than just a picture with their name under it. Unfortunately, all I have to offer are words; I sincerely wish I had more. Karl, Renee, Steve, Chris, and Laurie, what more can I say except thank you very much for all of your time and efforts. Putting this book together would have been harder on all of us without your help.

I haven't mentioned the editors yet because I hardly know where to begin. This yearbook was their responsibility and they handled it beautifully. Kory's endless hours in the darkness of the darkroom and his selling efforts played a very important role in the completion of this book. Well done Kory!

Two people, above all others, can appreciate the amount of work involved in the production of a yearbook. Peg and Jeanne spent many long hours after school and during the weekends preparing this book; they survived the tedious work, all the nerve wracking mistakes, and the deadline pressures. And they survived with a smile. Peg and Jeanne deserve a great deal of credit for this 1973 NORTHERN TRAIL.

Because of the hours we spent together, Jeanne and Peg and I have shared many experiences, some good, some not-so-good. Out of this sharing developed a strong friendship; a friendship that has made my year a memorable one. I am a little sad about the end of the year because all of us who worked so closely together, will be going our different ways. I will miss these people. I am glad to have had the opportunity to know all of these people. I wish them good luck and much happiness in whatever they do.

The Newcombe

It will not be until the years to come that we will realize just how much this year has meant to us, it was made up of many varied and unbelievable experiences, meeting and talking with new and old friends, coming up against many confusing and tiring problems, plus the great interest and the new understanding.

We have been exposed to many views and much advice which have made us by far more aware of ourselves and other people.

We sincerely thank all those who have made this year so meaningful. Memories of Eagle River high will be with us for a long, long time. We thank the teachers for their interest and help, and our friends who found time to give us a quick smile of understanding. It is this acceptance that we shall never forget, making us think of our school not just as another school, but as a friendly place made up of individuals we've grown to know and love.

With sincere thanks,
THE ANNUAL STAFF EDITORS

... and so there ain't nothing more to write about, and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd 'a' knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't 'a' tackled it, and ain't a-going to no more. But I reckon I got to light out for the territory ahead of the rest, because Aunt Sally she's going to adopt me and sivilize me, and I can't stand it. I been there before.
